

God blesses us every day through you and your partnership in prayer and support!

I (Lori) am in the middle of administering the two month teacher training course, The Dynamic Teacher, for the 3rd time in Benjamin. Thirty-five teachers from thirteen different evangelical churches are participating. It's so exciting to see their enthusiasm and tremendous desire to learn how to evangelize and disciple children.

Wilson did a flight recently to Santo Antônio do Iça where he and another pastor were seminar speakers at a couple's retreat. What a tremendous blessing it was for them to minister to 165 couples.

The hangar is coming along well. Large tractors and machinery arrived from Manaus to fix the roads and we were able to use them (at minimal cost) to work on the ramp and have the container moved outside the hangar for storage of av gas. Wilson decided it was better to construct office space and storeroom for parts and pave the way for a possible apartment upstairs.

Time to Celebrate!

August was filled with celebrations. The 10th was Wilson's birthday. I got up early in the morning and began making three large cakes. A friend donated a huge bucket of ice cream. We took everything to church that night to celebrate together with our church family.

The following week our church had a combined celebration of Brazilian Father's Day with the 22nd anniversary of our church. →

That same weekend we had the honor of being “padrinhos” at Ana and Jocicley’s wedding. (This is kind of like God-parents, a Brazilian custom). Anna is the daughter of Bob and Karen Hamilton, an American missionary family who have lived here fourteen years. Jocicley is from Benjamin. God provided the perfect day for their outdoor wedding here in the Amazon; sunny, not too hot with a few wispy clouds here and there. They held it at the church Retreat Center which is located in their backyard! A missionary from the region, Kim Yoder, lovingly made her gorgeous wedding dress and Anna’s mom sewed all the bridesmaids’ dresses and made this amazing cake. What a joyful time of love, friendship and fellowship.

Wilson always says that Christians should be the most joyful people in the world. After all, we get to celebrate life in Christ each and every day!

God’s richest blessings,
Wilson and Lori
