

Thank you for your prayers!

March 2024

It has been a joy to visit with ministry partners in Santa Catarina, Brazil before heading back to the triple borders of Brasil, Peru and Colombia. Due to Wilson's herpes down his left leg, it was not possible to visit everyone or get out much, but we praise God that after two months he has less pain and more mobility. We want to thank you for your prayers for him!

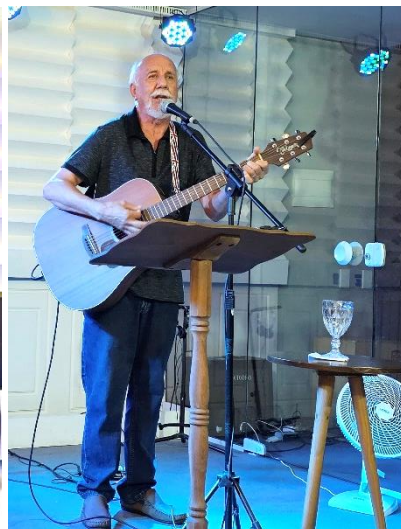

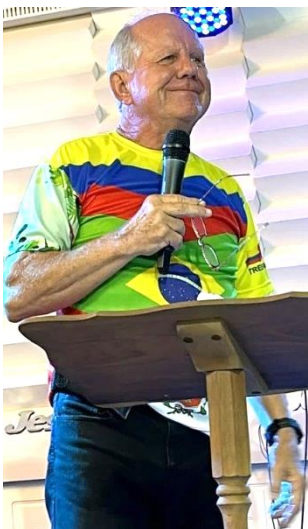

Evangelical Lutheran Church of Itajaí

Pastor Luciano, from the Evangelical Lutheran Church of Itajaí, came to visit us one afternoon. It was wonderful to share with him about missions in our region and explain our future goals and projects. We also loved hearing about the goals and blessings of the church in Itajaí. It was an honor to share God's Word the following Sunday. We received such a warm welcome from the church family, and we love exchanging hugs afterwards. 😊

Revival Church in Balneário, Camboriú

It is always a tremendous joy to spend time with brothers and sisters in Christ who pray faithfully and partner in ministries with us! 😊 Wilson had the privilege of preaching at the Revival Church in Balneário, Camboriú and Neri taught us a praise song.

Just like the last church we visited, this was yet another very excited and fervent group, with their hearts full of God's love and passion for carrying out missions.

The Secret of having an Abundant Life

I (Lori) was invited to minister to the women's group at that same church a few days later. Our niece, Claudia, who is a worship minister and coordinator of the Children's Department, introduced me to the group. We reflected on how we can have an Abundant Life. What's the secret?... having the PRESENCE of God in our lives! God promises an abundant life to all those who trust in Jesus as their Lord and Savior, cultivate a personal relationship with Him and obey what He says. At the end of the service, this amazing group of women surprised me with a beautiful box full of delicious food, most of it homemade by one of the ladies. I can't describe the blessings God showered on us all. We shared such sweet fellowship!

Happy Birthday! Wilson and I had the privilege of celebrating several family birthdays during our time in the south. Neri is one year older and wiser and nephew Johann is very excited to be 8 now. Congratulations to you both! 😊

Wrapping up our time in south Brazil

We make plans but the results are up to the Lord. There were many ministry partners we planned to visit, but with Wilson's struggle with herpes we were not able to travel the first two months and it was hard to make long trips until the time we left. We made one final trip with Neri the end of February to visit extended family and friends in Taíó, where they grew up. After many years, Wilson finally got to see his best childhood friend, José. We also stopped off in Benedito Novo and had a great visit with ministry partners, Evaldo and Érica.

Wilson and I want to thank you for your fervent prayers for Wilson's health, our time with mom and family and for God's direction as we ministered in churches and visited ministry partners. We are excited to head back and begin finalizing details for several upcoming mission trips. Excited too that we will get to see many of you and serve the Lord together to reach river communities for Christ!

With all our love and hugs, Wilson and Lori
