

Family Reunion

Wilson and I had an amazing time with our kids and grandkids in March at the end of our missionary deputation. We hadn't been all together as a family for six years. To top it off, we got to share our family reunion with the rest of the Kannenberg clan in Itajaí, south Brazil, where our kids visited while on home assignments through the years. The extended Kannenberg family loved meeting Aurora and Emmet, the two youngest members of our family, for the first time. We were so excited that two of Joshua and Leighann's special friends, Matt and Kris, came once again too. We have known them for years and have adopted them into our family 😊. For ten days, we made countless precious memories spending time and connecting with each other, with Mom (Iolanda) Kannenberg and with relatives. We celebrated Joshua's and Julie's birthdays, enjoyed several of the beaches in the area, shared meals, and so much more. Here are more highlights of our time together...
